

I would like to keep the do not call list. I had been receiving 2 or 3 calls a night from sales people. They are even calling me at work to refinance mortgages and stuff. It's really frustrating to come in from work and have to continue answering calls. It's so bad that when you tell them no they continue to talk and you have to hang up on them. Please keep the do not call list in tact.
Thank you